

WILFRID LAURIER UNIVERSITY
FACULTY OF ARTS
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

The Department of Sociology at Wilfrid Laurier University invites applications for a Tenure Track faculty position at the Assistant Professor level. We seek applicants with expertise in quantitative methods and social statistics who specialize in globalization with a focus on global inequality (including, but not limited to, health equity or environmental justice). The position will commence July 1, 2023, subject to budgetary approval.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach quantitative methods and social statistics at the undergraduate and graduate level as well as courses in their area of research specialization. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience or demonstrated teaching potential in these areas. Sociology at Laurier is characterized by strengths in the areas of equity and social justice, and we expect the successful candidate's research and teaching to reflect those emphases.

We will give preference to candidates with a PhD in Sociology; however, sociologists with doctoral degrees in closely related disciplines will be considered. The candidate's record of research and scholarship should demonstrate their expertise in their field of specialization and in quantitative research.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier and copies of recent publications, a 1 – 2 page statement of current and prospective research interests, and contact information (address, telephone, and email) for at least three referees.

Applications are to be addressed to:

Dr. David Monod
Chair, Department of Sociology
Wilfrid Laurier University
75 University Avenue West
Waterloo, Ontario N2L 3C5

Electronic submission of applications is preferred. Applications will be accepted until March 17, 2023, at sociologyhiring@wlu.ca.

Applicants can learn more about the Department and current faculty research interests at: <https://students.wlu.ca/programs/arts/sociology/index.html>

Wilfrid Laurier University is committed to employment equity and values diversity. Laurier welcomes applications from qualified members of equity-deserving groups. Indigenous candidates who would like to learn more about equity and inclusive programming at Laurier are welcome to contact the Office of Indigenous Initiatives at: indigenous@wlu.ca. Candidates from other equity-deserving groups who would like to learn more about equity and inclusive programming at Laurier are welcomed to contact Equity & Accessibility at: equity@wlu.ca.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, as per Canadian immigration laws, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. To comply with the Government of Canada's reporting requirements, the University is obligated to gather information about applicants' status as either Permanent Residents of Canada or Canadian citizens. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or current citizenships; however, all applicants must include one of the following statements in their cover letter:

Yes, I am a current citizen or permanent resident of Canada;

No, I am not a current citizen or permanent resident of Canada

Members of designated groups must self-identify to be considered for employment equity. Candidates may self-identify, in confidence, to: Dr. Sofie Lachapelle, Dean of Arts at slachapelle@wlu.ca. Further information on the equity policy can be found at <https://www.wlu.ca/about/governance/assets/resources/8.4-employment-equity.html>.

Applicants are encouraged to address any career interruptions or special circumstances that may have affected their record of research and teaching, in accordance with SSHRC and NSERC definitions and guidelines. To obtain a copy of this job description in an accessible format, please contact the Dean of Arts Office at 519-884-0710 ext. 3361 or at artsinfo@wlu.ca.

The Faculty of Arts wishes to thank all applicants for their interest. All nominations and applications shall be reviewed and considered under a set of criteria established by the Search Committee and a short list of candidates shall be interviewed. Only those applicants selected for the short list will be contacted.