PUBLISH WITH US!

The Canadian Review of Sociology / Revue canadienne de sociologie publishes three types of contributions

Where does your work belong?

ORIGINAL ARTICLE (peer-reviewed)
• substantial piece of research (7,000-9,000 words inclusive)
• advances existing sociological research and theory
• generates new theoretical insights through empirical research (qualitative, quantitative, historical, or other)

RESEARCH NOTE (peer-reviewed)
• sizable piece of research (5,000-7,000 words inclusive)
• research-in-progress, smaller-scale study, or empirical findings that fill a gap in the literature

COMMITTING SOCIOLOGY (not peer-reviewed)
• short, timely piece on a current debate, controversy, or emerging issue in the discipline
• review essay of three or four books on a related topic
• symposium generated by an existing CSA research clusters
