

Protesters confront anti-immigrant rally at Queen's Park, Toronto, 19 September 2015. Photo credit: ZACH RUITER

IMMIGRATION AND THE FUTURE OF CANADIAN SOCIETY

The Second S.D. Clark Symposium on the Future of Canadian Society

Friday, November 4, 2016

9:30am – 3:30pm

East Common Room, Hart House
7 Hart House Circle, University of Toronto

TO ENSURE SEATING, REGISTER AT:
www.uoft.me/SDClark2016

For more information or accessibility assistance, please contact anna.slavina@mail.utoronto.ca

ALL
WELCOME
FREE
ADMISSION

- 9:30am Refreshments
- 10:00am Robert Brym, S.D. Clark Chair of Sociology (U of T) – Opening remarks
- 10:15am-12:00pm CANADA IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE
Richard Alba, Distinguished Professor, Graduate Center, City University of New York, “The expansion of the mainstream: parallels in the Canadian and US experience of contemporary immigration”
Jeffrey Reitz, Robert F. Harney Professor of Ethnic, Immigration and Pluralism Studies, Professor of Sociology (U of T), “Integration of immigrants in Canada, Quebec, and France”
Naomi Lightman, Post-doctoral Fellow, Sociology (U of T), Discussant
- 1:30-3:30pm KEY CANADIAN ISSUES
Monica Boyd, Canada Research Chair in Immigration, Inequality and Public Policy, Professor of Sociology (U of T), “What lies beneath: unpacking second generation success in Canada”
Patricia Landolt, Chair and Professor of Sociology (U of T Scarborough), “The grey area of Canadian immigration: hidden inflows and outflows”
Salina Abji, Post-doctoral Fellow, Sociology (U of T), Discussant

Sociology
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO