

We strongly encourage nominators to review the eligibility guidelines posted before submitting a nomination. <https://www.csa-scs.ca/lorne-tepperman-outstanding-contribution-to-teaching/>

Please submit the requested information using the sections and headings as outlined below.

Email to the CSA Office at office@csa-scs.ca by 11:59 pm PST on March 12, 2027.

Section 1: Nomination Information

1 page maximum

Nominator(s)

Include the following information for an individual nominator or each nominator if applicable.

First and Last Name:

Affiliation (academic institution):

Email Address:

Indicate the relationship of the nominator to the nominee (colleague, self-nomination, other):

Nominee(s)

Include the following information for an individual nominee or each nominee if part of a group.

First and Last Name:

Affiliation (academic institution, department, and rank):

Email Address:

Professional Website (if applicable):

Nomination Statement

A brief statement of the nominee's overall contribution to teaching sociology.

Commitment to Equity

Does the nominee identify as a member of one or more equity deserving groups*? Please explain:

Equity deserving groups are communities that encounter barriers to equal access, opportunities and resources due to structural disadvantage and discrimination. This marginalization is created by historic, social, political, and environmental barriers based on age, ongoing colonialism, ethnicity, disability, economic status, gender, nationality, race, sexual orientation and transgender status, etc. This information will only be shared with the adjudication committee, who will be required to monitor and report on diversity among the nominees and the equitable process used for adjudication in compliance with the Canadian Sociological Association's Operating Standards and Principles on Equity policy. The data collected will then be archived in aggregate form for ongoing review of the Awards Program nomination and adjudication processes as per the Canadian Sociological Association's Privacy Policy.*

Section 2: Teaching Contribution Details

5-page maximum

The contribution to the scholarship of teaching and learning, as opposed to excellence in teaching performance, is the focus of this award.

Prepare a narrative CV according to the following guidelines, as applicable.

- Explain how the instructional materials developed by the nominee(s) aim to enhance undergraduate understanding of Sociology, focusing on teaching and curriculum aspects.
 - Outline the dissemination and utilization of these materials within academia and the community.
- Describe the nominee's involvement in the scholarship of teaching and learning.
 - Highlight innovative techniques created for teaching undergraduates.
 - Discuss how these techniques have been communicated and adopted by other academic departments, institutions, or community organizations.
- List any awards or media coverage received for the nominee(s)' instructional materials or teaching techniques.

Section 3: Letters of Support

2-page maximum per individual letter

Include a minimum of 2 to a maximum of 3 letters representing both colleagues and current/former students. Each letter should speak directly to the nominee's contribution in terms of one or more of the following;

- Publication of materials pertinent to teaching
- Capacity to share work with others (between departments and/or beyond the university)
- Impact of work (use of teaching materials by other faculty and/or recognition by students, the media, or the public)
- Innovative approaches to teaching, as well as content within the teaching material