

Teaching Term Position in Sociology (5-month)

Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, has a population of more than 1,300 students and emphasizes innovative approaches to teaching and learning, research and engagement. Experiential learning, impactful research and strong community relationships are the hallmarks of Grenfell Campus' profile.

The Social Cultural Studies Programme, School of Arts and Social Science invites applications for a 5-month teaching term position in Sociology at the rank of Lecturer or Visiting Assistant Professor, depending on the applicant's qualifications. The position will begin on August 1, 2026 and end on December 31, 2026.

Preference will be given to candidates who hold a Ph.D. in Sociology. Recent post-secondary teaching experience in the specified subject areas is preferred. In the Fall semester, the successful candidate will be required to teach two sessions of Introduction to Sociology (Sociology 1000), as well as Classical Social Theory (Sociology 3150), and Technology and Society (Sociology 2120).

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on Friday, June 5th, 2026. A letter of application along with a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness and a sample course outline) and the names and contact information for three references should be amalgamated into one pdf and addressed to: Dr. Julie Pitcher Giles, Dean, School of Arts and Social Science, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Corner Brook, NL A2H 6P9. Applications, as well as all inquiries, should be sent to Shelli Penney at shellip@mun.ca.

All appointments are subject to budgetary approval. Salary will reflect qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement governing faculty at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is strongly committed to employment equity and especially welcomes applications from all qualified candidates, including women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, members of sexual minorities and persons with disabilities.